The diagram consists of two parallel horizontal lines. Along the top line, there are several pairs of parentheses: one pair at the beginning, one pair in the middle, and one pair at the end. There are also vertical bars and a brace. The label "A" is centered above the middle pair of parentheses. Along the bottom line, there are several pairs of brackets: one pair at the beginning, one pair in the middle, and one pair at the end. There are also vertical bars and a brace. The label "B" is centered above the middle pair of brackets. The entire diagram is enclosed in a large set of parentheses, with one pair at the very top and one pair at the very bottom.
